Let's see what happens in a life without borders, a life without walls. Some may say such a life or a request is said to be looking above the law. Perhaps trying to get around such things. However, if you are attempting such a process, that is not the way to go about this life.

Thinking things through is an important aspect of life. If you do not think, or try to think your way through situations, what is the point of even trying?

One cannot expect to dive into an empty pool and swim. A person must look before they leap. To be informed of what you are getting into is of utmost importance.

If you leap before you look, you are treading on shaky ground.
